Quality First Aid Made Easy

We are pleased to introduce the trusted Trafalgar First Aid name as part of the Brady family of brands. Our quality range of TGA listed* first aid kits and supplies represents over sixty years of experience in serving the Australian industrial market. Building on that foundation Brady brings the convenience of simplifying your supply line while enjoying leading brand first aid kits and supplies.

First aid compliments our extensive range of safety and facility marking products. We are sure you will find exactly what you need by using our easy to understand risk assessment table (see inside front cover) which makes correct first aid kit selection a breeze.

We believe the Brady/Trafalgar alliance will help improve your company's occupational health and safety program and compliance requirements.
